2019 Historic Appomattox Railroad Festival

Non-Concession Vendors Application

Electricity:

Electricity is available, but limited to first come first served. (Based on receipt of application)

Space:

- Approximately 10' x 12' space
- Vendors must provide their own tables, chairs, tents, display equipment and anything else needed throughout the festival. Vendors are required to allow way for the parade route and Railroad Willie Express. After the parade, your tent may be moved further into the street.
- Spaces will be marked prior to the festival. You will receive your space number at the time of registration on the day of the festival. Entrances to buildings and storefronts must remain open. No material is to be displayed or hung on buildings, windows, or street lamps. Vendors are responsible for keeping their area clean and free of hazards. Vehicles must be parked outside of the Festival grounds

Refunds:

If for any reason you will not be able to participate in the festival and you have paid your fee, you must notify the festival committee by September 11, 2019 to receive a refund. After this time, no refunds will be given for any reason. Refunds will not be given for vendors that are asked to leave the festival for non-compliance, or for rain.

Tax Collection:

Vendors are responsible for collecting, filing, and reporting sales tax collected. HARF will provide copies of the tax forms if needed, and will file them as a courtesy if needed.

Map:

A map of the festival events is available at <http://www.appomattoxrrfest.org/map.php>. This map will be updated periodically, but will be available for you the week before the event. Please familiarize yourself with available parking, restrooms locations, and the flow of traffic to ensure a positive experience.

Setup Information:

- You must check in at the registration table to receive your vendor space information.
- Saturday setup is 6:00 a.m. to 9:00 a.m. All vehicles must be off the streets by 9:00 a.m.
- Sunday setup is 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 a.m. All vehicles must be off the streets by 12:00 a.m.

The Historic Appomattox Railroad Festival Committee cannot and will not assume any responsibility for any lost, damaged, stolen or destroyed work, material or equipment attended or unattended during the festival. Anything left throughout the night will be at your own risk.

Failure to comply with any of the general guidelines and regulations may result in the vendor being asked to leave the festival. All state and local law enforcement have grounds to ask you to leave at their discretion. If you have any questions, please feel free to call the Railroad Festival at 434-363-8003 or the Non-Concession Vendor Coordinator directly at (434)228-3366, or email tmcbride@deltastar.com.
